October 2025 Activities

Mission Capacity Building

At SRM Public School, we believe that growth is a shared journey between educators, parents, and learners. As envisioned a 3-day Capacity Building Program (CBP) was initiated designed to emphasise on collaboration by nurturing knowledge, skills, and empathy across our learning community.

It was encompassed with interactive sessions, expert-led workshops, and experiential activities. The CBP was initiated to empower stakeholders with techniques to inspire, innovate, and elevate the learning experience at SRMPS - aligning with our vision in Educating Minds. Enriching Lives.

HOME-SCHOOL ENGAGEMENT

The session was a canvas of inspiring message on creativity and collaboration. Trainers and participants collaborated to explore innovative ways of learning and turning ideas into tangible outcomes. Each moment reflected the belief of SRMPS that innovation and passion are the threads that weave the fabric of progressive education.

Warm welcome extended to esteemed mentors

Mentored by a panel of experts, parents experienced enlightening sessions that unlocked self-awareness and practical insight. The mentors crafted an engaging environment where participants recognized their innate potential to nurture and guide their children more effectively.

EMPOWERING PARENTS WITH THE ART OF CRAFTING OBJECTS

Activities that brought learning to life, as parents explored the art of crafting. Leading them beyond creativity, it represented the strength of experiential learning - empowering parents to rediscover curiosity by transferring their enthusiasm into their children's everyday learning journey.

Through a series of exercises and group discussions, the program emphasized that confidence and curiosity form the cornerstone of effective parenting. Parents learned to encourage exploration, resilience, and values of independence that SRMPS continually fosters within its learning spaces.

The first of its kind Capacity Building Initiative also addressed the real-world complexities of parenting in a digital, fast-paced era. Practical frameworks and reflective tools helped participants understand emotional intelligence, balancing of communication and the art of building stronger connections with their children.

The session concluded with a celebratory note capturing the unity and spirit of the SRMPS family. The shared laughter, learning, and collaboration symbolized the uniqueness of the ecosystem of SRM : a closely-knitted community growing together with shared purpose and pride.

C B P - DAY 2

DELIVERING EXCELLENCE IN CURRICULUM AND LESSON PLANNING – THE SRM WAY

Ms. Tasleem Bano took the participants through a meticulous exploration of lesson design, bridging philosophy with practicality. The session emphasized intentional curriculum planning, where each lesson evolves into an experience rather than an instruction. The educators were imbued with refined frameworks to plan, deliver, and assess in ways that empower curiosity and measurable learning outcomes.

Gearing Up for Success for educators: A Strategic Workshop by Dr. Sanghamitra Banerjee

DAY 2 - It commenced with a dynamic session led by Dr. Sanghamitra Banerjee. It focused on strategic readiness and forward-thinking pedagogy. The workshop inspired educators to align classroom goals with institutional excellence. They were exposed to case studies and reflective dialogues, facilitating participants to explore how strategic clarity fuels academic and emotional growth true to the vision of SRMPS in Educating Minds and Enriching Lives.

CHAIN IMAGINATION WEB – ENHANCING NARRATIVE SKILLS THROUGH CHAIN STORY EXERCISE

Creativity took center stage as educators participated in an interactive Chain Story exercise - an engaging platform to enhance storytelling and sequential thinking. The activity demonstrated how imagination connects learners across disciplines, encouraging them to weave stories that nurture communication, empathy, and expressive confidence.

BLENDING SOUNDS WITH LETTERS- THE 'JOLLY PHONICS' SESSION BY SPIRALUP TEAM

The SpiralUp team delivered an energetic session on phonics pedagogy, introducing innovative strategies to strengthen sound-to-symbol connections for educators to empower early learners. With practical demonstrations and guided practice, educators were witness to how multi-sensory learning empowers children to decode words with joy and accuracy - laying the foundation for lifelong literacy.

Continuing their engagement, SpiralUp's training team facilitated a reflective module on understanding diverse learner archetypes. This session enabled teachers to identify learning patterns, adapt teaching styles, and personalize learning journeys - ensuring inclusivity and emotional balance in the classrooms of SRMPS.

CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAM

ASSESSMENT AS EMPOWERMENT – TRANSFORMATION TO HOLISTIC EVALUATION

Led by Dr. Padma V. and Ms. Beena Nair, this transformative session redefined assessment from a grading process to a growth journey. Educators were introduced to holistic evaluation methods integrating academic, social, and emotional dimensions, fostering student empowerment through constructive feedback and reflective growth.

MEET THE EXPERT MENTORS - THE VISIONARIES BEHIND THE CAPACITY BUILDING INITIATIVE OF SRM PUBLIC SCHOOL

The program concluded with an introduction of the distinguished mentors who steered the capacity-building excellence initiative of SRMPS. Their collective expertise, drawn from academia, psychology, and instructional design, reinforced the commitment of SRM Public School to continual professional growth and institutional distinction. The day ended with a note of gratitude, the show of strength of collaboration, and shared purpose - an enduring testament to the culture of continuous learning methodology by SRMPS.

C B P - D A Y 3

GLITTERING INVESTITURE CEREMONY

The final day of the Capacity Building Program unfolded with a spectacular Investiture Ceremony celebrating student leadership and responsibility. The event embodied the spirit of the theme - "Today's Student Leaders. Tomorrow's Change-Makers." Young leaders were formally vested with duties and badges of honour, symbolizing the faith of SRMPS in nurturing initiative, teamwork, and accountability at every level of schooling.

The ceremony radiated pride and promise as the newly appointed council members pledged to uphold the values of SRM Public School. Each badge adorning the student leaders symbolized trust, responsibility, and the spirit of service. The address by the Principal inspired students to lead with integrity and empathy, reminding them that true leadership lies in action and accountability.

With confident strides and bright smiles, the young leaders took their oaths, marking the beginning of a transformative journey - where every step they take will echo the belief of SRMPS in leadership through purpose and passion.

Nurturing Young Learners to Stay Safe and Self-Assured

In an age where awareness shapes resilience, sessions on themes like "Stranger-Danger" and "Good Touch-Bad Touch" empowered young learners with confidence to recognize boundaries and practice safety. Through stories, role-plays, and discussions, the trainers inculcated emotional security and self-assurance - the critical cornerstones of holistic child development.

The session aptly blended awareness with empathy, ensuring every child understood safety sans fear and imparted with confidence building. Engaging demonstrations and storytelling helped students recognize personal boundaries and develop emotional intelligence. Teachers reinforced these lessons with warmth and sensitivity, fostering an environment where children felt seen, heard, and empowered. The initiative reflected the commitment of SRMPS in shaping not just informed learners but emotionally secure and self-assured individuals who consider safety as a life skill, not a rule.

MASTERING NAVIGATION TOWARDS GROWTH AND TRANSITION – BUILDING CONFIDENCE FOR TOMORROW

Led by mentors Dr. Padma V. and Ms. Beena Nair, this transformative workshop focused on helping learners transit confidently through academic and personal milestones. The session emphasized growth mindset, emotional adaptability, and self-reflection as drivers of lifelong success, reinforcing the mission of SRMPS to shape resilient and future-ready individuals.

The session unfolded as a reflective journey where educators and mentors imbued in learners to navigate change with clarity and courage. Practical exercises and real-life scenarios helped participants internalize resilience, adaptability, and positive self-dialogue as tools for personal growth. By equipping students with strategies to embrace uncertainty and pursue excellence with conviction, it was a reflection of the vision of nurturing confident, future-ready individuals who lead with awareness and authenticity.

CBP 2025 – A Journey of Empowerment and Excellence

The grand finale featured an interactive dialogue between the newly-inducted student leaders and Shri M.S. Lakshmi Narasimhan, Director and CEO, SRM Education. The dialogue was an illustration of the importance of leadership with purpose, humility, and courage. The moments captured the ethos of SRMPS — empowering young voices to become the changemakers of tomorrow.

DIWALI

DIWALI CELEBRATION AT SRMPS - THE MOMENTS OF ILLUMINATING YOUNG MINDS

The festival of lights carried the sparkles of joy and creativity inside the bright campus of SRMPS as our young learners of LKG and UKG participated in a vibrant Diya Making Activity. With tiny hands shaping and decorating colorful Diyas, the children celebrated the essence of Diwali - spreading the light of positivity and togetherness. The activity not only kindled artistic expression but also instilled values of cultural appreciation and shared happiness, making the celebration truly radiant and memorable.
